

Murano / Venice has a long and famous tradition in glass blowing.

We have found renowned glassblowing companies there that can manufacture the appropriate glass bottles that go with our bottle lights. The selected master glassblowers have admirable craftsmanship that you can see in each of the hand-blown Murano bottles.

Each MURANO bottle is mouth-blown and is unique, reflecting the picturesque culture of Venice, Italy.

A corresponding manufacturer certificate is supplied with each of the MURANO bottles.

In combination with our battery-operated bottle lights, the Murano bottles become a particularly high-quality and artistic table lamps.
